

Title:The Abrahamic Covenant

- The basic motivation of covenant is _____
- Covenant teaches us a lot about the God who _____ about His creation
- Genesis 12 is where God starts to reveal His covenant plan of _____
- Abraham was a Chaldean who became a _____
- This was an _____ covenant
- God was faithful in regard to the _____
- The land He gave them was the land of _____
- God was also faithful to promise him a _____
- Seed determines _____

The Old Covenant of Law

- This covenant came _____ years after the Abrahamic Covenant was given
- God called the Israelites: stubborn, _____, stiff-necked
- Before God could be _____, man's sin had to be dealt with
- The covenant of law was given to _____ man's sin
- This is not an _____ covenant
- The Old Covenant does not _____ anything in the Abrahamic Covenant, but becomes the means by which it is _____
- All men are _____ under sin
- The Old Covenant was inaugurated in Exodus _____
- The Law exposes self to be sinful by setting a _____ that man cannot attain
- In man's _____ under the Law, he will respond to God's grace and mercy
- The tabernacle was the means by which _____ could be dealt with

The Tabernacle

- The tabernacle was picturing the _____
- This is a pattern or _____ of what is in heaven
- Everything in it was a picture of _____
- The tabernacle was God's means of letting rebellious man _____ with Him
- Jesus is God's means of _____ of man
- Abraham _____ to see Jesus' day
- How Jesus is seen in the tabernacle:

- The _____ → there's only one way in
- The _____ → a picture of the cross, the place where sin was dealt with
- The _____ → a picture of the cleansing of God
- The _____ → the bread of life and our Sabbath
- The _____ → the light of the world
- The altar of _____ → intercession for the saints
- The _____ → Jesus' torn flesh on the cross, removing the barrier between God and man
- The _____ of the covenant → covered by the mercy seat where the blood was sprinkled so man could have an _____ with God
- When the Law _____ all of man's acts of righteousness, then a man is ready to experience _____