

Title:The Abrahamic Covenant

- Three things God promised:
 - A nation through which all nations would be _____
 - A _____
 - A _____
- These are important to look at in light of God's _____ to fulfill these promises
- The promise to give Abraham a nation began with _____
 - Abraham was born a Chaldean, but was a Hebrew by _____
 - Jacob's name was changed to _____
- The promised land God gave to Abraham was _____
 - The land became both a source of blessing and of _____
 - The Hebrews were in slavery _____ of the 430 years they were in Egypt
 - The generations that followed Joshua were people that did what was right in their _____
 - The last judge was Samuel because the people wanted a _____
 - _____ was the first king, followed by David, then Solomon
 - The nation was split after Solomon, and the first kingdom to fall into idolatry was the _____ kingdom
 - When the _____ kingdom fell, they were taken captivity in the first dispersion
 - When they returned to the land, they stayed there until _____ A.D., when the second dispersion took place
 - As of _____, Israel is back in the land God promised
- The _____ promised to Abraham is the Lord Jesus Christ
 - Gentiles never have a right to be _____ or negative toward Jews
 - God protected the seed through the tribe of _____
 - There has always been a _____ of Israel
 - When a person refuses to believe, they are _____
 - Through the Jews' rejection of Christ, the doors were opened to the _____
 - The Jews become _____ by seeing the Gentiles obtain what they are longing for
 - Because the Seed was through Abraham, the gospel goes to the _____ first
 - Unbelief was the means of being stripped away from the _____
 - True, biblical belief is not _____

- God gives us the _____ to believe; faith is a gift of God
- God is _____ the Jews while waiting for the last Gentile to be brought in
- God will show mercy to Israel, who _____ His Seed