

Inerrancy Demands Expository Preaching (Matt. 22:23-33)
Shepherds' Conference Review 4/19/2015

The Main Question of Religion

If every word is _____, every word must be _____; otherwise, you're _____ God.

The main question all religions have to face: Is there _____
_____?

At the heart of Christianity is the _____.

The Jews in _____ time, and before, believed in _____.

A sect in Jesus' day that openly rejected _____ were the Sadducees.

Resurrection Teachings at the Time of Jesus

Notes on the Sadducees:

The Pharisees were another sect who were more _____ with the people.

The Sadducees believed that God inspired only the _____.

Notes on the debates between Pharisees and Sadducees:

Jesus' Exposition of Scripture

Jesus and His apostles threaten the Sadducees' _____.

To trap Jesus, the Sadducees approach Him with an _____ question about the resurrection.

Notes on the background behind this question:

Jesus began His answer by calling out their ignorance of _____.

You are mistaken =

The problem with every spiritual wanderer is that they don't know the _____, and therefore, they don't know the _____ of God.

The things that necessitate _____ here, don't happen in heaven.

Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 15:35-44 that _____ ideas must be responded to as being _____.

In Matthew 22:32, Jesus quotes Exodus 3:6. Here, God speaks of His covenant relationship with the _____ and makes an identification with those men in the _____ tense, even though they're all _____!

The patriarchs are _____ historically, but they are _____ individuals who still have a relationship with God.

God is not the God of the _____, but the God of the _____.

Jesus built the whole case for the _____—which is the heart of all religion, and the heart of all true religion—on the _____ of a verb: "I _____, not I _____."