

How Much Do You Understand?

Have you understood =

All that Jesus has taught us in these parables are not _____ facts, but they need to be put together and understood as a _____.

Like the parables, the _____ is a whole made up of parts.

We must see _____ in every line on every page of the Bible.

We want to handle the whole Bible with _____ because God did not _____ a single word when He inspired it.

"Any thinking Christian is in some sense a systematician." – D. A. Carson

We know from what the disciples later said and did that their understanding was far from _____, but Jesus still accepted their response as _____.

The Role of Those Who Understand

Scribe =

Who has become a disciple =

Head of a household =

The idea behind the head of household bringing out of his treasure is going in and pulling things out and _____ them to others as something that they need and will _____ them.

New =

Old =

Jesus means that as his disciples teach God's will, they will be drawing out the meaning of the _____ Scriptures ("things _____"), while showing how they are _____ and apply in the kingdom age ("things _____").

The person who understands the _____ understands how to put it all together into one new picture of _____ through faith in Jesus Christ alone!

The Responsibility of Those Who Understand

As believers, we do not search _____ truth, because we _____ the truth in God's Son and in God's Word. We are taught by the _____ of Truth. Therefore, we search _____ truth that we might _____ more truth.

The disciples' "yes" did not actually mean that they understood all that Jesus was teaching, only that they _____ all they did understand and were prepared to _____ on it.

We must be disciples who _____ the truth.