

Context Review

The Canaanite woman was a descendant of a people God had commanded Israel to _____ and utterly _____ (Deut. 7:2).

By putting up a barrier of _____, Jesus was testing the woman's faith to bring it to full _____.

Sometimes the hardest response to accept from God is _____

Until Christ's _____, which broke down the middle wall of partition (Eph 2:14), the Gospel commission was to the Jews only, who, though the visible people of God, were "lost sheep," not merely in the sense which all _____ are, but as abandoned and left to wander from the right way by faithless _____.

Though a Gentile, this woman understands that she herself is a lost, _____ sheep, too

Food for Children and Food for Dogs

Answered =

Not good =

Dogs =

The "children" must then refer to _____ and the "bread" to the _____ of God on the Jews, particularly through Jesus' _____ ministry.

The miracles of Christ were designed and fitted for the specific purpose of verifying to the _____ that Jesus was the promised _____. To perform miracles for _____ would be to give them to those for whom they were not intended or _____.

The Woman Persists

Salvation involves us agreeing to God's _____ of us.

Jesus is drawing _____ out of her, and in the process He's teaching the disciples—and us—to _____ for our faith.

Notes on the 'dogs feeding on the crumbs from the master's table':

She knew she was _____ and unworthy of anything Jesus had to offer and was willing to concede that she was less _____ than Jews. In doing so she demonstrated a complete absence of the _____, self-_____, and self-righteousness that characterized most Jews.

Jesus Rewards Her Faith

Faith =

Examples of great faith:

Her faith was proven in her _____.
Genuine biblical faith includes 3 elements: 1) _____, 2) _____ with that content, 3) trust in or _____ to Christ.
Our Lord responded to this woman as He did, not to _____ her faith, but to _____ it.

"It is faith's work to claim and challenge loving-kindness out of all the roughest strokes of God." – Samuel Rutherford