

Parables Defined

Parables =

Parables introduce the _____ through the familiar in nature and _____ experience.

When the comparison is not _____ to the listener, the parable becomes _____ unless explained.

Parables either reveal or conceal the _____ of God. They reveal to _____; they conceal from _____.

The Landowner's Needs

The kingdom of heaven is _____ the kingdoms of earth.

Jesus in this parable is giving insight into the _____ of His kingdom.

Landowner =

Notes on the landowner's hiring of laborers for his vineyard:

The Landowner's Agreement

When he had agreed =

Denarius =

Sent =

Standing idle =

Right =

God uses the people He _____ and places us in His kingdom to do His _____.

Ways in which God uses laborers inside the church:

Ways in which Luke 10:1-12 tells us God uses laborers outside the church: