

Jesus Foretells His Suffering and Death (Matt. 20:17-19) 6/18/2017

The Destination

Notes on going up to Jerusalem:

Things we learn from the parallel passage in Mark 10:32:

Amazed =

Fearful =

The Lord not only knew _____ all the events the prophets wrote about would be fulfilled, but He now moved resolutely toward their _____.

We are going up =

The disciples knew they were going to Jerusalem to celebrate the _____ with Jesus, but they did not know that Jesus was Himself God's ultimate and only true _____.

Cross references:

Luke 24:25-26

1 Peter 1:10-11

Jesus' _____ and _____ were always in God's plan.

The Predictions

Son of _____ is the name that expresses Jesus' _____, emphasizing that He is God in the _____.

Notes on Jesus' use of Son of Man in this passage:

Will be delivered over =

Notes on Jesus' suffering:

When referring to Christ's _____ before and during His crucifixion, the New Testament always uses the _____.

Jesus' sufferings cannot be _____.

The greatest sufferings He endured were not physical but emotional and _____.

Jesus also suffered the pain of _____.

Jesus suffered the pain of _____ itself.

To save the lost whom He loved with infinite _____, He had to become for them the _____ He hated with infinite _____.