

Who are you?! (Rom 14:3-4) 9/17/2017

Review & Context

Present your _____ and your _____ in worship to God, in pursuit of His _____.

Weak and Strong differences are over topics that God does not _____ or _____.

Regard with Contempt

To despise is to look _____ upon someone or treat them as if they are _____.

Those who are at _____ on a particular issue are _____ to _____ those who are not.

Passing Judgement

To judge (in this context) is to respond to another person's faith in such a way as to pass _____ or _____.

Those who are not at _____ on a particular issue are _____ to _____ those who are.

When a person is saved, and justified in the sight of God, he is _____ and _____.

Who are you?

The theme of the story throughout scripture is—man is _____ and _____, who is in need of an appropriate sacrifice, in order to be made right with a _____ and _____ God.

We should never judge someone according the _____ of _____ without the warrant of God's _____.
