

The Resurrection of the Dead (Matt. 22:23-29) 1/28/2018

The Interrogators

Notes on the Sadducees:

Socially:

Theologically:

A person who does not believe that there is _____ _____ has little motive for living any way other than how he pleases.

The Point of Contention

Resurrection =

Old Testament cross references:

The body, according to the Bible, is not the _____ of our humanness.

The person is _____ and _____.

The body is the _____ person; the soul is the _____ person.

While the body is referred to as being either strong or _____, the soul is consistently spoken of in distinctly _____ terms.

The question we must ask is, "What makes up a _____?"

As long as our soul is _____ to our body, then our body _____ our soul, and our soul affects our body.

The soul _____ with the time/space dimension we exist in through the body.

A physical problem may strongly _____ a spiritual reaction in a person, but it can never be an excuse or _____ for bad, sinful behavior.

To remove _____ responsibility from a person by blaming the _____ would be to treat them as less than human and rob them of _____ for change.

Notes on Deuteronomy 25:5-10:

The Point of Correction

Mistaken =

Understand is a word that requires _____ action.

The two things they did not understand: 1) the _____ and 2) the _____ of God.

Man's _____, man's philosophies, man's theories and musings are what they followed instead of the _____ teaching of Scripture.