The Problem

Unfortunately, the experience of many unbelievers is that when they went to a church, all they got was a huge dose of _____.

Christian Smith referred to much of contemporary teaching as therapeutic moralistic _____.

When presented the _____ without the gospel, an unbeliever loses heart, gives up, and _____ this type of religion.

Now we have new generations who shy away from the _____ imperatives in the Word of God for fear of the accusation of _____.

Moralism = a belief that one can _____ the favor of God or be accepted by God via moral _____

Morality = being _____ by the Spirit's power to God's revealed will for human flourishing

Scriptural examples of morality:

Kingdom Living

The Sermon on the Mount is a _____ of kingdom living.

Jesus is laying before them a _____ of the inner man by the Spirit that will _____ on the inside and flow to the outside.

What we see in the Beatitudes is a _____ of the ideal man _____ fully to the person and work of Jesus Christ.

To be born anew is to be _____ by the Spirit's power into an external, _____ reality.

Grace-Driven Effort

Rom. 12:2 helps us navigate not erring on the side of legalism or _____.

Notes on vivification:

Notes on mortification:

Two concepts to live by:

1. Keep _____ for your own heart and soul, as to what stirs your _____ for Christ.
2. Pay really close attention to what _____ you of that affection.

We must embrace being the _____ people we are.
