

Permanent Words for a Temporary World (Matt. 24:32-35) 3/3/2019

Review

Jesus repeated the Bible's assertion that God will exert His _____ over His creation in an unmistakable, _____ way.

All the forces of _____, here called the powers of the heavens, which hold everything in space constant, will be in _____.

For believers, these signs will be _____ because they will indicate that _____ is on the way.

The sign of signs will be _____ Himself, who will appear in the sky.

Every single people group will see the Son of Man in His _____ glory and immediately recognize Him as _____.

Fig Trees and the Second Coming

Parable =

Parables introduce the _____ through the familiar in nature and _____ experience.

This parable, like many others, has often been made _____ and misleading by those who view it as a complicated _____ rather than a simple analogy.

Notes on the fig tree:

Learn =

Recognize =

Notes on someone being right at the door:

The Final Generation

This generation refers to the generation that will _____ these events take place.

Reasons Jesus could not have been referring to the generation of His day:

The leaves of the fig tree represent the _____ and the other _____ of His coming that Jesus has described in the preceding verses.

All believers living _____ this time period starts will be _____, or taken to heaven before the Tribulation begins.

The Temporary and the Permanent

Jesus now declares that heaven and earth _____ pass away at some _____ time.

Jesus' words are _____...the current heaven and earth are _____.

Cross references:

2 Peter 3:10

Revelation 21:1-8

Everything our Lord says stands _____ because it is 100% true and never grows old or needs _____.