

The Wickedness of Man on Display (Matt. 27:27-37) 3/22/2020

Introduction

Review notes regarding the context:

The _____ of Jesus was the supreme revelation of the gracious love of God while also being the ultimate expression of the _____ of man.

The King is Tortured by His Subjects (v. 26)

Scourged =

The '_____ of the cross,' as Paul put it, has long since vanished as its message is _____ to fit the modern mind.

Notes on crucifixion:

Rome used crucifixion not only as an instrument of _____ and execution but also as a shameful pillory reserved for the worst and _____.

Scourging was the most extreme, _____ way to inflict pain and suffering on the human body _____ actually killing a man. Crucifixion was the most _____, inhumane way to inflict pain and suffering while _____ to kill a man.

The King is Ridiculed by His Subjects (vv. 27-31)

Mocking =

The tactics the Roman soldiers used to mock Jesus' kingship:

1. Took Jesus' clothes off and put a _____ on Him.
2. Put a _____ on His head.
3. Put a _____ in His right hand.
4. _____ down before Him.
5. Acclaimed His _____.
6. _____ on Him.
7. Took the _____ and _____ Him on the head.

The record of Jesus' mocking and _____ by the Romans is a stark picture of the wickedness and _____ nature of every man's heart.

The King is Marched to Death by His Subjects (vv. 32-37)

Notes on a man of Cyrene named Simon:

Notes on the wine mixed with gall:

Jesus was unwilling to drink it so He might preserve _____ of mind to the end, in doing His Father's _____.

Notes on the soldiers dividing up His garments:

The inscription above Jesus proclaimed His _____ and a universal truth at the same time.