

Introduction

Some interpretive issues and questions raised by James 5:13-18:

The _____ to answering those questions and properly interpreting the passage lies in understanding it in its _____.

A text without a _____ is a pretext for a _____ text.

The contextual theme of James 5:13-18 is _____.

Pray When Suffering (v. 13a)

Suffering =

This word is used in Scripture in the context of enduring _____ and the suffering that comes from the hard work of _____ ministry.

The subject is not _____ illness or healing.

The overall _____ of James—especially ch. 5—involves believers responding _____ to suffering.

James exhorts believers to pray as an _____ to their suffering.

Cross references on this type of prayer:

When _____ is difficult, when believers are weak in _____, weary with persecution, and crushed by _____, they must continually plead with God to _____ them.

Introduction

Some interpretive issues and questions raised by James 5:13-18:

The _____ to answering those questions and properly interpreting the passage lies in understanding it in its _____.

A text without a _____ is a pretext for a _____ text.

The contextual theme of James 5:13-18 is _____.

Pray When Suffering (v. 13a)

Suffering =

This word is used in Scripture in the context of enduring _____ and the suffering that comes from the hard work of _____ ministry.

The subject is not _____ illness or healing.

The overall _____ of James—especially ch. 5—involves believers responding _____ to suffering.

James exhorts believers to pray as an _____ to their suffering.

Cross references on this type of prayer:

When _____ is difficult, when believers are weak in _____, weary with persecution, and crushed by _____, they must continually plead with God to _____ them.

The _____ believers are to offer in such circumstances is not necessarily for _____ from the trial, but for the strength to _____ it faithfully.

Sing When Cheerful (v. 13b)

Cheerful =

The cheerfulness James speaks of here refers not to _____ circumstances, but to the cheerfulness of heart that one can have whether in _____ times or in _____.

Sing praises =

Notes on what we should sing:

Praise and _____ are closely related.

We should pray and sing praises _____.

Applying the Passage to Life

Jesus tells the church to pray and praise in every _____ in life, to take every _____ to our Sovereign Lord.

Through prayer and praise, we sanctify _____ and consecrate _____.

The wise v. foolish contrast: The wise turn to _____ in their afflictions, while the foolish turn to _____.

The _____ believers are to offer in such circumstances is not necessarily for _____ from the trial, but for the strength to _____ it faithfully.

Sing When Cheerful (v. 13b)

Cheerful =

The cheerfulness James speaks of here refers not to _____ circumstances, but to the cheerfulness of heart that one can have whether in _____ times or in _____.

Sing praises =

Notes on what we should sing:

Praise and _____ are closely related.

We should pray and sing praises _____.

Applying the Passage to Life

Jesus tells the church to pray and praise in every _____ in life, to take every _____ to our Sovereign Lord.

Through prayer and praise, we sanctify _____ and consecrate _____.

The wise v. foolish contrast: The wise turn to _____ in their afflictions, while the foolish turn to _____.